Presented by  AMERICAN ELECTRIC POWER FOUNDATION

We are excited to return to in-person adjudications this year for our fourth annual CAPA Marquee Awards presented by American Electric Power Foundation. On May 10, the CAPA Marquee Awards will culminate with a red-carpet ceremony and student showcase at the Ohio

Theatre at which winners in all 11 categories will be announced.

Educational opportunities this year will include a return to our Broadway Master Class series with classes planned for HADESTOWN, FIDDLER ON THE ROOF, COME FROM AWAY, CATS, and PRETTY WOMAN.

Our Workshop series kicked off on October 9 with a very informative session on auditioning for college theatre programs. Additional workshops planned for this year include designing for the theatre, rock vocals with Shadowbox Live, and musical theatre dance audition.

We are also excited to announce our participation in the Broadway League's three-part virtual speaker series! Made up of Broadway professionals, this virtual series gives students the opportunity to explore non-performance topics. The first class on "Designing and Building a Show" will be held on December 1.

We are delighted to announce we have accepted 18 schools from four central Ohio counties.

Thanks to generous support from our Broadway in Columbus season subscribers, we make the experience of Broadway available to the next generation of theatre goers in central Ohio.

Open to all public, private, and charter schools, this program provides subsidized tickets to help educators use the power of Broadway to serve as a tool to enhance their curriculum and make learning fun.

2021-22

Broadway for Kids APPLAUSE!

SHOWS

Applications opened in September and educators were asked to supply information about their school, their classroom, and how they will connect the Broadway show to their classroom curriculum. A lesson plan demonstrating those curricular connections was also required. We are excited to welcome elementary, middle, and high school students to the Applause Program this season!

Education Spotlight

Crystal Satterfield Education Coordinator

Tell us a little bit about yourself and your background. After graduating from Kent State, I spent two years as an English language fellow in Colombia and Spain. It was truly one of the most rewarding and unforgettable experiences I've had thus far. I also have a background in customer service and advocating for people in various markets. I am grateful that every portion of my career has included connecting with people of all ages on an interpersonal level. In addition, I love to cook, sing with friends and family, laugh, and create.

How did you get started in the arts? I credit my love of the arts to my grandma and my mom. They took me to see one of the first runs of Disney's The Lion King on Broadway at age 7, and it left an imprint on me. I come from a family of singers as well, so I've always had an appreciation for different genres of music and musicals. I lived for play and musical season in high school.

What was your favorite subject in school and why? I loved choir and math (specifically Algebra) because you can use both sets of skills interchangeably. As a teen, my mind was blown when I realized music is just gorgeous sounding numbers. I felt like I was cracking a secret code. I still feel the same way today.

What is the most exciting thing about working for CAPA's Education & Outreach department? I am excited to be a part of bringing theatre education to children, teens, AND adults. I am encouraged by the opportunity to shift the paradigm of who gets access to the arts. I'm looking forward to being a part of carrying out CAPA's vision of equity, diversity, and inclusion. The arts are for EVERYONE.

“Theatre is like a gym for empathy. It’s where we can go to build up the muscles of compassion, to practice listening and understanding, and engaging with people that are not just like ourselves.”
